

The Path

Brainstorm

My sorrow laughter in the dead of night
Try to understand and prevent my fall
I tried to find and take away the light
Now I'm crawling deeper into my hole

Under and in between me
To live on borrowed time

The path I choose
The way I lose my inner sight
The path I choose
I'll never lose my state of mind

Steal the remaining flames of my life
Owned by the dark, lonely and insane
With all the choices and the deals I made
Tried to understand the devil's game

Under and in between me
To live on borrowed time

The path I choose
The way I lose my inner sight
The path I choose
I'll never lose my state of mind

The path I choose
The way I lose my inner sight
The path I choose
I'll never lose my state of mind

The path I choose
The way I lose my inner sight
The path I choose
I'll never lose my state of mind
