

Where Ravens Fly

Brainstorm

Don't know why the God in you
Reveals the fate of the everlasting truth
The world around you disappears
The fall of men, in honesty, in fear

Rule the fate, be betrayed
In a godless demise
Now rise up to the sky with no
Chains on your mind

Fly like a raven in the night
To the vale of ancient rites
You're falling
Fly like a raven fly so high
In the dark your tears will dry
You're falling

Down where hope lies dying now
Your magic rules where chaos has been found
Create a world in agony
Be a God beyond the enforced reality

Rule the fate, be betrayed
In a godless demise
Now rise up to the sky with no
Chains on your mind

Fly like a raven in the night
To the vale of ancient rites
You're falling
Fly like a raven fly so high
In the dark your tears will dry
You're falling

Keep all their voices and all their fears
Carry me away, we'll slightly disappear

Fly like a raven in the night
To the vale of ancient rites
You're falling
Fly like a raven fly so high
In the dark your tears will dry
You're falling

Fly like a raven in the night
To the vale of ancient rites
You're falling
Fly like a raven fly so high
In the dark your tears will dry
You're falling
