

Brakence in the second round now
And I don't even feel like I need a rest
Got a bag of the luck
EP next week and I'm unimpressed
Now I consider that I myself I'm a successful man in business
I hate business
Play this record as frequently as-
I hate everything to do with it;
Accounting, figuring, adding up numbers
Brakence

Because they're all arid. They don't smell of anything but sometimes there's an interesting smell to the ink on a checkbook But by and large I don't like it

Brakence in the second round now
And I don't even feel like I need a rest
Got a bag of the luck
EP next week and I'm unimpressed
At 16, I bought my boo a bouquet
17 years I'ma kill the kit in no saves
I just drop the habits that make my life fucking gray
I'm so jealous of my future I need to pick up the pace like
I don't wanna change my tone
But I couldn't do this on my own, ay
And if anybody call my phone
I'm like we get no beef, we're crop grown, ay
I don't even need credit
When I work witcha I'ma get hitched
Do my thing then I make connections
No one knows where I'm 'bout to go

And I'm done staring at the ceiling
With the thought that I'm gon' get there one day
Just give me answers, baby
At least my life is taking shape
'Cause I'm about to keep that up
Scream out my purpose

Gimme more time
Fuck my inhibition
Y'all don't need me you just feed me lies, you're not forgiven
We are words high
So I don't need prescriptions
Do y'all bleed
I don't think you got no nervous system

No one can stop me now
I'm worthless but I got sound

And I know
Who you are

And curiously there are very few roles in life which ah
Provide this possibility writer and sometimes musician
Sometimes the independent consultant can occupy this role

And I know

Who you are

Sometimes the independent consultant can occupy this role

I know that

This nerd will give it to you, promise you gon' not forget me

Got a hunch that you don't like me but I understand it

First hundred thousand people see my shit they get it

I just bought a vision tryna make sense of you

Nerd will give it to you promise you gon' not forget it

Got a hunch that you don't like me but that's all embedded

First hundred thousand people see my shit they get it

I just bought a vision tryna make sense of you

This nerd will give it to you promise you gon' not forget me

Got a hunch that you don't like me but I understand it

First hundred thousand people see my shit they get it

I just bought a vision tryna make sense of you

Now who's gonna listen to all this
