I'm never gon' let you down again
 Fucked you good as I imagine
 Said nothing changed but I doubt it
 Wouldn't leave you in the past tense
 I'm never gonna let you-

Ghost for a whole week
 Thought I really want your love but you don't know me
 Text you all damn night, hour unholy
 I couldn't get a second of sleep when I found out you were just my type
 I was dead wrong but it felt so right
 When you caught my gaze with those dark green eyes
 And I'm never gon' change thinking 'bout that twice
 It's all chord changes and vocal lines

I'm a mess and it looks like you got your shit together
 But despite all of my first impressions
 I can't imagine what's gonna happen
 Get your ass back here

I'm never gon' let you down again
 Fucked you good as I imagine
 Said nothing changed but I doubt it
 Wouldn't leave you in the past tense
 I'm never gon' let you down again
 Fucked you good as I imagine
 Said nothing changed but I doubt it
 Wouldn't leave you in the past tense
 I'm never gon' let you-

I swore that I was fed up
 How could I turn it back?
 You got tied by the words I choked on
 And the qualities I lack
 He didn't answer me
 What is it I run from?
 Deny it was best
 The rest is left up to the somethings that exist outside my head

Now we've got a wedding for a whole week
 Hold each other, remember the thing you told me
 Now there's only minutes until this plane leaves
 But wait, did I just leave heaven
 Or is it waiting there?

I'm never gon' let you down again
 I'll fuck you good as I imagine
 Said nothing changed but I doubt it
 Wouldn't leave you in the past tense
 I'm never gon' let you down again
 Can't get you out of my head
 Said nothing changed but I doubt it
 Wouldn't leave you in the past tense
 I'm never gon' let you-

If all is lost
 I've got the peace in my mind

You'll probably be fine
I was scared of what you'd say
But since I've made some more mistakes
(I'm never gon' let you-)

I've done some wrong things in the past, but that's okay
