Brakence

I'd fuck up my life if you told me to
But I don't need your help
I do it by myself
Maybe a lie is a second truth
But I can never tell (Ooh)
So we can't do this my way

Suck up all my time for the moment
Drowning in my fault and I know it isn't healthy
But can anybody sell me for this art
I don't wanna spend time with you, naw
You don't fucking know me bro just tell me what you got
Before I claim your spot

Still, you're stuck in my favor
It's all the same
You got my attention but I won't listen
Can't walk with conviction
Been out of state
So how come I'm burning out
Tryna make it out of here alive
I want more from men and women
If we take it slow then I won't hesitate
We could do it thirty minutes
And you can ask me any second of the day
I'm gonna miss you but I'll never hit the brakes
Cause I'm fucking or I'm fucked up in my head
And if I ain't gonna sing that shit you better see me
Work a nine to five to fill my plate
So you best watch me pop
When people get the jist they be like oh my God
I got more time off
Still tryna' figure out who you are
Can't put my thoughts to speech unless I steal your magic and I put you on my sleeve
All I really know is I should punch the snare in when I'm feeling beat

And I'd fuck up my life if you told me to
But I don't need your help
I do it by myself
Maybe a lie is a second truth
But that shit don't go well
That shit don't go well

I suck up all my time for the moment
Drowning in my fault and I know it isn't healthy
But can anybody sell me for this art
Nah, I don't wanna leave home
I can't free smoke and it's all my fault baby
But it's alright just know I feel you
I feel you

This ain't all my love
I got way more love
This ain't all my love

I got way more love
This ain't all my love
I got way more love
This ain't all love
Got more love
