

And after all that it somehow leads to this
Through the haze we stumble on missed
All the fantasies you know we'll kiss
All the flowers cut and break the tryst
The river flows and you know its turns
And we get the joke and get the gist
And walk away knowing we can do it
Here we go, a walk on natures track
Knowing that the code is don't look back
But the tide returns to somehow pull the way
And all those used to bes can only mend
When I pull my head out of the house to speak
With open eyes to life I'm free within
Oh heart to heart to heart to heart
Now we know this love does not ever end
Still we hear them
In the Stillness
We can do this
Into the stillness
Out into the stillness
Right into the stillness
Right into stillness
Why put all those things away
Want to walk away
Make some calls to pave the way
Want to walk away
Every moment that we say
Want to go want to stay
Today will be the day
Today is the day
Come on now...
