

Good

Branan Murphy

What does it mean?
All of the pain that's happened to me
I can't escape the memory
I try to cope, I try to hope it all away
You let me break
I never saw it coming
But you must be up to something
I feel the flames
Always thought fire would hurt me
But that's just the old me burning

Everything meant for evil you turn to good
Everything meant for evil you turn to
Everything meant for evil you turn to good
Everything meant for evil you turn to
Good

Not trying to say
All is forgotten, now I'm ok
But I wouldn't change it, I'm wide awake
And I know that it won't be all in vain
No one can do what you do
All of this time I've been hurting
But I know you cut like a surgeon

Everything meant for evil you turn to good
Everything meant for evil you turn to
Everything meant for evil you turn to good
Everything meant for evil you turn to
I know you can
See in the dark
Finding out you never waste a broken heart
(Cause) Everything meant for evil you turn to good
Everything meant for evil you turn to

Every long, lost night
Never was my fight
Making all things new
It was always you
