

Maybe

Branan Murphy

I know that You're on to me... right, right
Appreciate the honesty, but can we... back up, back up
Just need a minute, can we slow it down?
I feel You chasing me, I can't hide
I'm just tryna figure out why
I can't get You off of my mind
My heart is burning... I won't lie, yeah
I won't lie

Maybe I'm not far, I just don't wanna hear the truth
And maybe all my scars are just a map that leads to You
Maybe I... maybe I'm crazy
Or maybe I'm afraid of all the things I might become
And maybe I will finally have a place that I can run
Maybe I, yeah... maybe it's time... to give in

Running out of bad excuses... right, right
You can be so intrusive
I'm just scared to let You in
So I keep pushing away, pushing away, yeah

Maybe I'm not far, I just don't wanna hear the truth
And maybe all my scars are just a map that leads to You
Maybe I... maybe I'm crazy
Or maybe I'm afraid of all the things I might become
And maybe I will finally have a place that I can run
Maybe I, yeah... maybe it's time... to give in

To give in, to give in, oh, to give in

I feel You chasing me, I can't hide
My heart is burning... burning...

Maybe I'm not far, I just don't wanna hear the truth
And maybe all my scars are just a map that leads to You
Maybe I... maybe I'm crazy
Or maybe I'm afraid of all the things I might become
And maybe I will finally have a place that I can run
Maybe I, yeah... maybe it's time... to give in

Maybe I'm crazy
