

Perfectly

Branan Murphy

How do I even know who I am?
How do I even know where I'm going?
This complicated world has made
A complicated mess of me, yeah

But You see me perfectly
When I don't see myself
When I don't see myself
You love me perfectly
When I don't love myself
When I don't love myself

Why would I ever turn from Your face?
Where would I ever run to find peace?
I battle to be somebody
That I was never made to be, woah-oh-ohh

But You see me perfectly
When I don't see myself
When I don't see myself
You love me perfectly
When I don't love myself
When I don't love myself

I am not my own
I am not my own, yeah yeah
I belong to You, yeah
I want to lose myself in You, woah-oh-ohh

That You see me perfectly
When I don't see myself
When I don't see myself
You love me perfectly
When I don't love myself
When I don't love myself, woah-oh-ohh
You see me perfectly (I can't see the truth sometimes)
When I don't see myself (Remind me)
When I don't see myself (Remind me)
You love me perfectly (And You see me and You love me)
When I don't love myself (And You hold me)
When I don't love myself ('Cause You want me)

Yeah, You see me perfectly
