Archers

Brand New

Who do you carry the torch for, my young man? Do you believe in anything? Do you carry it around just to burn things down?

Meet me tonight on the turnpike, my darling 'Cause we believe in everything If we sweat all these debts then we're sure to drown So we strap ourselves into this engine now With a guard that we found a way into the backseat

What did you learn tonight? You're shouting so loud you barely enjoy this broken thing You're a voice that never sings, is what I say

You were freezing over hell You were bringing on the end, you do so well You can only blame yourself, it's what I say

All that you've got is to ignore the things I was sorry And sweep me under the rug And a beating with a book everyone, the book tells you to love

There is an ember in the heart of the kiln And it's burning hot with love Burning out my sins until there's nothing but dust Holding me with care into your cigarette 'Cause the God I believe in worked on a campaign trail

What did you learn tonight? You're shouting so loud you barely enjoy this broken thing You're a voice that never sings, is what I say

You were freezing over hell You were bringing on the end, you do so well You can only blame yourself, it's what I say

Who do you carry the torch for, my young man? Do you believe in anything? Do you carry it around just to burn things the ground?

What did you learn tonight? You're shouting so loud you barely enjoy this broken thing You're a voice that never sings, is what I say

You were freezing over hell You were bringing on the end, you do so well You can only blame yourself, it's what I say

Feels like we could escape this I might throw it away For fear of the silver sun

If you try running a maze Of your lies, it's too hard to save You've thrown out everyone
