Brandon Beal

I know this freak yeah, she do whatever
Sliding down that pole, that's the way she get her cheddar
And I'm cool with it cause she love fucking as much as I love it
She don't like the kissing and hugging
In public I send her a text like, "Baby, come over"
And she's cool with it cause

She can do whatever that she wanna do
And she can go wherever that she wanna go, I ain't gotta know
She got that good weed and good sex
She don't ever bring no stress

That's my fucking fuck friend
My fucking fuck friend
We got something better, we'll be cool forever
As long as you my fucking fuck friend
And all we do is smoke, drink, fuck
Cause you know I need it and I know you always got it
And you put it on me, but you never talk about it
Oh girl, I got it all, when I know that I can always call my best fucking friend
You're my best, BFF
You're my best, BFF, baby
You're my best, BFF
You're my best, BFF

I got this freak and got this agreement
And she see it just exactly how I see it
See all these other hoes be changing, like this shit's so complicated
Never sticking to the basics, that's why I had to replace her, yeah

And she can do whatever that she wanna do
She can go wherever that she wanna go, I ain't gotta know
Long as I keep that pussy wet
She never going nowhere

That's my fucking fuck friend
My fucking fuck friend
We got something better, we'll be cool forever
As long as you my fucking fuck friend
And all we do is smoke, drink, fuck
Cause you know I need it and I know you always got it
And you put it on me, but you never talk about it
Oh girl, I got it all, when I know that I can always call
And all we do is smoke, drink, fuck
Cause you know I need it and I know you always got it
And you put it on me, but you never talk about it
Oh girl, I got it all, when I know that I can always call my best fucking friend
You're my best, BFF
You're my best, BFF, baby
You're my best, BFF
You're my best, BFF, baby
You're my best, BFF
You're my best, BFF, baby
You're my best, BFF
You're my best, BFF, baby
