

Drop That Booty Down Low

Brandon Beal

Yeah, ohh
Yeah

You came to the club tryna get a little love cause it's been a hard week (ha rd week)

Got a lot on your chest and your booty need rest, you should leave it on me, oh

These hoes ain't worth, they talkin' 'bout Lily, no
But you ain't gotta say one goddamn thing

Just bounce it, bounce it
Go boom-a-boom-a-boom
Shake it, shake it that round round
Elevator, now hula-hula
Keep breakin', breakin' it down down
Side to side, up and down
Everybody's lookin' now
I can tell you want me to know
When you drop that booty down low
When you drop that booty down low

When I look around all these girls you the baddest one I see (see)
Take a look around you know none of these niggas fucks with me
These hoes gon' run their mouth regardlessly
But you ain't gotta say one goddamn thing, na na na

Go bounce it, bounce it
Go boom-a-boom-a-boom
Shake it, shake it that round round
Elevator, now hula-hula
Keep breakin', breakin' it down down
Side to side, up and down
Everybody's lookin' now
I can tell you want me to know
When you drop that booty down low
When you drop that booty down low

First class soldier, you're a killer
Brought your whip and pull that trigger
Cause I am the champ, you know this is a war soul (boom boom, bang bang)
They shootin', they shootin', so keep that as down low
Welcome to the jungle

Just bounce it, bounce it
Go boom-a-boom-a-boom
Shake it, shake it that round round
Elevator, now hula-hula
Keep breakin', breakin' it down down
Side to side, up and down
Everybody's lookin' now
I can tell you want me to know
When you drop that booty down low
When you drop that booty down low
When you drop that booty down low
