

Higher

Brandon Beal

I don't know why I feel so low
Take me higher, higher, higher
I'm tired of feeling lonely
I'm tired of feeling low
Take me higher, higher, higher, higher, higher

Hey, wake up (Put your ass up)
And tell the world I'm coming, oh (We're about to come up)
You gotta take one step and then another
Before you know it, I'm running (Before you know it, I'm running)
Running, running, running, running (Oh, oh)
Back on the scene (Where you've been?)
Doing my thing (How you feeling?)
I felt so alone, now I'm feeling like a goddamn king (That's how you feel?)
Waited too long to let it all go
Back to that room, singing that same old song, like

I don't know why I feel so low
Take me higher, higher, higher
I'm tired of feeling lonely
I'm tired of feeling low
Take me higher, higher, higher, higher, higher

Get down, get up, take me (Ooh, ooh, ooh) higher
Take me higher, higher, higher
Get down, get up, take me (Ooh, ooh, ooh) higher
Take me higher, higher, higher

You won't get me in no mood today
'Cause I'm feelin' too goddamn good, nah
On my knee, I'll be on my way
To other levels, different altitudes
I got my fat shades on and my fastest sneaks
You see the sun so bright up in these mountain peaks
Up top can leave you so cold
Highs'll bring you so low
Take me higher, higher, higher, higher, higher

Get down, get up, take me (Ooh, ooh, ooh) higher
Take me higher, higher, higher
Get down, get up, take me (Ooh, ooh, ooh) higher
Take me higher, higher, higher

Started at the bottom with a dollar and a drink
But everything that glitters ain't always what it seems
When they see you flying they just pull you to the floor
But once you hit the bottom there's just one way left to go
(Higher) We got one way left to go now
(Higher) We got one way left to go
(Higher) We got one way left to go now, yeah
(Higher) We got one way, yeah

Get down, get up, take me (Ooh, ooh, ooh) higher
Take me higher, higher, higher (Baby)
Get down, get up, take me (Ooh, ooh, ooh) higher
Take me higher, higher, higher

Started at the bottom with a dollar and a drink
But everything that glitters ain't always what it seems
When they see you flying they just pull you to the floor
(Higher)
