Ready For Romance

Brandon Heath

I use to think that love was just a sentiment for people with a lot of emotion right up until I turned 23 I been thinking bout these people buying tickets just to see their honey a cross the ocean when I could just stay right here for free

a combination of alone and alive just came right over me in this picture of you came in to view and you set this wild he art free, you set this wild heart free I showed my independence to the door took off my shoes and slid across the floor and then I watched when Harry met Sally once more I'm lost without you
I never stood a chance
I'm tired of freedom
I'm ready for romance

I am skippin all pre-relation, preparation take it one step outta heartache just give me some room and let her fly I search every little town up and down the heartlands for the p rosperity
but without any rest until she is next to me, to me

a combination of alone and alive just came right over me
in this picture of you came in to view and you set this wild he
art free, you set this wild heart free (2x)lets show our independence to the door take off our shoes and slide across the floor and we can watch when Harry met Sally once more I'm lost without you
I never stood a chance
I'm tired of freedom
I'm ready for romance, I'm ready
