

Running Wild

Brandon Heath

She wasn't looking for an answer to an ordinary prayer she just liked to be around him she liked knowing he was there she saw something no one else could see way beyond his gentle eyes and it was more than just a moment when she finally realized and she could feel his arms around her even when he's not around and it's worth while just to see him smile her heart is running wild for him

He wasn't looking for a reason a certain time a perfect place he just like to be around her he loved the beauty of her face he knew something no one else could know about a mystery he would never tell and she whispered softly to him well it's a voice he knows so well he could talk to her for hours and still have so much more to say and if you asked him know i bet he would tell you how his heart is running wild for her

Now they stand together before the Father and the Son two hearts are longing for eachother a living now is one and you can almost hear the angels yeah you know they are singing from above about the beauty of a Fathers love His heart is running wild for them all for them
