That's Enough

Brandon Heath

Mind if I tell you a secret
A few simple truths about me
Might be hard to believe
Guess I'm just tryin' to come clean
Sometimes I don't know where I'm goin'
It's hard to admit where I've been
When I come to the end of myself this is where I begin again

I am here
I am loved
God is good
And that's enough

I don't know your situation
What kind of story you're in
If you're high on that mountain
Or down in the valley again
You might be holding your baby
You might be holding a drink
You might be holding a secret that's getting harder to keep

But you are here
You are loved
God is good
And that's enough
And I am here
I am loved
God is good
And that's enough

It's okay if I don't have the answers
It's okay to be right where you are
It was patience and kindness and love
That got us this far

You are here
And you are loved
God is good
And I am here
I am loved
God is good
And that's enough

He is here
He is love
God is good
And that's enough
