

Anybody ?

Brandon Jenner

I'm locked up inside my hard drive and miserable
Giving away my only life
Addicted to love and sex just like a little boy
Begging for someone to hold me at night
A slave to my phone and the need to get a bunch of likes
Netflix has gotten me so fucking numb
I carry the weight of my family on my shoulders
And they don't even seem to give a fuck about me

Is there anybody else out there that feels the way I do?

I'm living a life of luxury giving to me
All of my things, I did not earn
My dad didn't help me to grow up to be who I am
Just moved out and ran while I was young
I felt so unwanted, abandoned like a failure
And I'm still dealing with those feelings now
If you look up to me, you've been misled, I can guarantee
There's nothing inside me you could ever need

Is there anybody else out there that feels the way I do?

I don't give a fuck what you think about me
Except for everything you see
I don't give a fuck what you think about me
Except for everything you see
I don't give a fuck what you think about me
Except for everything you see
I don't give a fuck what you think about me
Except for everything you see

Is there anybody else out there that feels the way I do?
