

HELP!

Brandon Lake

My mind feels like a circus
Tamin' tigers, flamin' torches
I can't deal with my own conscience
The truth and lies entangled
Dodging arrows at every angle
Why does life feel like a jungle?

Come take this weight off my chest
Come put this chaos to rest
I think I'm losing my mind

(Help! Help!)
When the panic attacks and I've got my back up against the wall
(Help! Help!)
Come and invade the fear and the flames, hear me when I call

(Help)
(Help!)

My faith gives way to crisis
What, when, who will help me fight this?
Hear me screamin' through the sirens (Help)
And I feel it gettin' stronger
It's Your voice that gives me power
One by one, those demons cry for-

Help! (Help!)
Help! (Help!)
When the panic attacks and I've got my back up against the wall
(Help! Help!)
Come and invade the fear and the flames, hear me when I call

I lift my eyes
Up to the skies
Where does my help come from?
My one defense
My truest friend
Where does my help come from?
I lift my eyes
Up to the skies
Where does my help come from?
My one defense
My truest friend
Where does my help come from?

Help! (Help!)
Help! (Help!)
When the panic attacks and I've got my back up against the wall
Help! (Help!)
Help! (Help!)
Come and invade the fear and the flames, hear me when I call
(Help!) Help!
(Help!) Help!
When the panic attacks and I've got my back up against the wall
Help! (Help!)
Help! (Help!)
Come and invade the fear and the flames, hear me when I call
