

Remember The Miracles

Brandon Lake

When the doubt creeps in
And my faith grows thin
And I'm questioning
I'll remember the miracles
When the lights go out
I feel more lost than found
Stuck on shaky ground
I'll remember the miracles

Yeah
Where would I be right now
If You never showed up
If You never reached down
You're gonna work this out
I just don't know when
I just don't know how
It might not look probable
It might seem impossible
But I believe
In miracles

So let hope return
Let the Healer work
Even in the hurt
I'll remember the miracles
And I will lift my head
Cause You're not done yet
The best is still ahead
I'll remember the miracles

Yeah
Where would I be right now
If You never showed up
If You never reached down
You're gonna work this out
I just don't know when
I just don't know how
It might not look probable
It might seem impossible
But I believe
In miracles

I've seen
Too much
To lose
Heart
Or give up
On You now
I know
This much
You won't
Ever let me down

I've seen
Too much
To lose
Heart

Or give up
On You now
I know
This much

You won't
Ever let me down

You won't
Let me down

You won't
Let me down

You won't
Let me down

Where would I be right now
If You never showed up
If You never reached down
You're gonna work this out
I just don't know when
I just don't know how
It might not look probable
It might seem impossible
But I believe
In miracles

(I believe)

I still believe
In miracles
