

So Close

Brandon Lake

The great winds blew
And the rocks tore loose, but I
Couldn't find You anywhere
And the earthquake came
And the fire raged, but I
Couldn't find You anywhere

Then with the whisper You came
Gently reminding me
To never be afraid

Heaven's closer than it's ever been
I can feel You so close, so, so close
When it feels like my world's caving in
Oh, God I need You so close, so so close

You can turn this cave
To a holy place, you won't
Let a tear here hit the ground
You're the God who stays
Till the morning breaks
And all of my fears come crashing down

Heaven's closer than it's ever been
I can feel You so close, so so close
My ever-present, never failing friend
I can feel You so close, so so close

You're the end of all anxiety
The safest place for suffering
Remind me once again that You're enough
Speak into these empty lies
Revive my heart, renew my mind
Remind me once again that You're enough

And I won't waste another breath
On fear of man or fear of death
Even when I second guess Your love

Heaven's closer than it's ever been
I can feel You so close, so so close
I fall into Your loving arms again
I can feel You so close, so so close

Heaven's closer than it's ever been
I can feel You so close, so so close
My ever-present, never failing friend
I can feel You so close, so so close
So close, so so close

Every time I call You come
You come running, running
Every time I call You come
So, so close
Every time I call You come
You come running, running
Every time I call You come

So, so close
Every time I call You come
You come running, running
Every time I call You come
So, so close
Every time I call You come
You come running, running
Every time I call You come
So, so close
