

High Heels

Brandy

Yeah, yeah

High heels
I feel good out here
I'm one in a zillion
I'm real and care less if they know
No fears, that's all I can pray for

Yes, I know they're planning to take this down
I spent a minute on me
Found a way to escape your doubts
And don't forget it, baby
There's not a gray that I'm taking out
It's me who validates me
See the growth and it makes me proud
There ain't no shallow in me

Like a lifetime since I've been in my right mind
Wrong place, but feel like the right time
D'ussé, regardless I'm gon' shine
Don't judge what you don't know
Got feelings, but I don't show
So you know

They're planning to take this down
I spent a minute on me
Found a way to escape your doubts
And don't forget it, baby
There's not a gray that I'm taking out
It's me who validates me
See the growth and it makes me proud
There ain't no shallow in me

Please, don't get me confused
I will never lose
Who do you think is who?
You're all up and through this, booth, me and bippity-boppity-boop, yeah
You went from a one, but it's really my two though
Sy'rai's my jewel
All of my pressure created a diamond and baby, it's you
I gotta make moves like I'm walking up in my Loubs
God gave me a plan, whole life in my hand
Never catch me and my daughter sinking up in sand

They're planning to take this down
I spent a minute on me
Found a way to escape your doubts
And don't forget it, baby
There's not a gray that I'm taking out
It's me who validates me
See the growth and it makes me proud
There ain't no shallow in me
They're planning to take this down
I spent a minute on me
Found a way to escape your doubts
And don't forget it, baby
There's not a gray that I'm taking out

It's me who validates me
See the growth and it makes me proud
There ain't no shallow in me
