

Before Seeing Green

Bratty

Forget what I said, baby
Forget what just happened lately
If I could just stop being
If I could just stop being so sad
Making myself a comforting song
Even though I know I don't deserve it
I can't stop going in slow mood
For these silent tears before seeing green
Tell me how was your day
Tell me so I can get you off my mind
Tell me how was your day
Tell me so I can get you off my mind
My mind
