

Memory Park

Brazzaville

Just some advice from a good Samaritan
You better get back before it gets dark
I still believe summer will return
And you'll be with me in Memory Park

Gone are the days of youthful ambition

The years slip away and dreams fall apart
But I still believe summer will return
And you'll be with me in Memory Park