Breakbot

[Verse 1: Irfane]
I've been trying to do right (right)
I know where we belong
Sometimes, I admit, I lose sight (sight)
Lose track and I do wrong

[Pre-Chorus: Irfane]
You try to keep the pain away (I can feel it)
Tell me you believe the lies I say (Don't believe it)
You try to keep those tears away (I can see it)
Hanging on to the strings of yesterday (Yesterday, yesterday)

[Chorus 1: Irfane]
You're too good for me
Too good for a sinner like me
Too good for me
Too good for a beginner like me

You're too good for me
Too good for a sinner like me
Too good for me
Too good for a beginner like me

You're too good for me, (Too good for me)
Too good for a sinner like me
Too good for me (Too good)
Too good for a beginner like me

You're too good for me, (Too good for me)
Too good for a sinner like me
Too good for me
Too good for a beginner like me

[Bridge:]
You're too good, too good for me
You're too good, too good

[Verse 2: Irfane]
I couldn't fall asleep last night (Night, night night)
Wicked thoughts kept me awake
I lied watching the morning star
Wondering whose hand could write out fate
You've been shedding new light (Light, light)
On every promise that I break
I know one day I'll get too far

[Pre-Chorus: Irfane]
You try to keep the pain away (I can feel it)
Tell me you believe the lies I say (Don't believe it)
You try to keep those tears away (I can see it)
Hanging on to the strings of yesterday (Yesterday, yesterday)

[Chorus 2: Irfane]
You're too good for me
Too good for a sinner like me
Too good for me
Too good for a beginner like me

You're too good for me, (Too good for me)
Too good for a sinner like me
Too good for me
Too good for a beginner like me

You're too good for me
Too good for a sinner like me
Too good for me
Too good for a beginner like me

[Outro: Irfane]
You're too good for me, too good for me, too good
You're too good, too good for a beginner like me
You're too good, too good for me
Too good
You're too good
Good
Good
Good
Good
