

Arrested

Breakbot

Baby,
They keep telling me that love is blind,
How was I supposed to see the signs,
You were standing right before my eyes,
And I didn't realize

It's crazy,
I have never felt like this before,
Lock you up inside forever more,
Don't you know you're guilty of a crime?
Now you must do the time

I hear,
I hear sirens in the dark,
It's too late,
Already right here,
Shot me through the heart
Can't escape

I hear,
I hear sirens in the dark,
It's too late,
Already right here,
Shot me through the heart
Can't escape

Save me,
I've been trapped inside the dungeons of your mind,
Searchin' for an exit I can't find,
If only you had seen it in my eyes (I didn't realize)

Why don't you take me?
It's the only way to bring me back ashore,
Your sweet torture, I can't take it anymore,
Don't you know you're guilty of the crime?
Now you must do the time

I hear,
I hear sirens in the dark,
It's too late,
Already right here,
Shot me through the heart,
Can't escape

I hear,
I hear sirens in the dark,
It's too late,
Already right here,
Shot me through the heart,
Can't escape

I've been arrested but I know my rights,
I won't protest it, I'm gonna fight,
Anything you say will be held against me,
While I pray you never set me free

I stand corrected I've been up all night,

We were connected, you were right,
And everything you say, I have held against me,
While I pray you never set me free

Can't escape,
And it's alright,
You know I'm gonna fight,
Can't escape,
You keep me up all night,
Can't escape,
And I know my rights,
Can't escape
