

Remedy

Breakbot

Searching for the remedy
Will you ever set me free?

Written in the scriptures
By the hands of time
Hidden in each picture
Between every line
Can you smell the poison
Of a promise they can't keep?
Leading all the chosen
Sinking eternal sleep

All I needed was a sense
(Of reciprocity)
Found that you might be the one
(To set me free)
I wanted to be touched
(By your philosophy)
But now I'm searching for a remedy

Searching for the remedy
Will you ever set me free?
Searching for the remedy
(Sooner, later, I am healing through you)
Will you ever set me free?
(Our time is overdue)
Searching for the remedy
(What am I supposed to do?)
Will you ever set me free?
Searching for the remedy
(Sooner, later, I am healing through you)
Will you ever set me free?
(Our time is overdue)
What am I supposed to do?

Praying for an answer
Waiting for a sign
Living for the future
Is just a waste of time
I can taste the poison
Of a promise they will break
I may not have been chosen
But I remain awake

All I wanted was to quench
(My curiosity)
Thought that you might be the one
(To set me free)
I needed just a scent
(Of your sweet ecstasy)
To get rid of the poison in me
