

Too Soon

Breakbot

You try to catch my eye, but I ain't looking up for love.
You try to worth my while, but I'm on a loose a boy, you just can't touch.

I've been heard, I wondered why, so now I'm looking after mine.
I don't know what you came to fight, but all you have to wait a while.

Because it's too soon, too soon, I can't forget the times (can't forget the times)

And you're too new, too new, can't let you come inside, I stay the night.

And you think that I'm teasing, but I ain't got no reason.

Just too soon, too soon (too soon for me to give my love to you)

Not like those other guys, but I don't wanna move too fast
Can't make me change my mind, so do you really wanna make it last?

I've been heard, I wondered why, so now I'm looking after mine.
I don't know what you came to fight, but all you have to wait a while.

Because it's too soon, too soon, I can't forget the times (can't forget the times)

And you're too new, too new, can't let you come inside, I stay the night.

Too soon, too soon, I can't forget the times (can't forget the times)

And you're too new, too new, can't let you come inside, I stay the night.

And you think that I'm teasing, but I ain't got no reason. Just too soon, too soon.

Too soon, too soon.

You try to catch my eye, but I ain't looking up for love.
You try to worth my while, but I'm on a loose a boy, you just can't touch.

I've been heard, I wondered why, so now I'm looking after mine.
I don't know what you came to fight, but all you have to wait a while.

Because it's too soon, too soon, I can't forget the times (can't forget the times)

And you're too new, too new, can't let you come inside, I stay the night.

And you think that I'm teasing, but I ain't got no reason. Just too soon, too soon.

Too soon, too soon.

Too soon, too soon.

Too soon for me to give my live to...
