

Knowing nothing, nothing but the lies you think you got the world in your hands I think you would stop at nothing you've never known this place you've never known the values I believe in

I can hear your lifeless voice, it's the voice of everyone else containing distorted views of this sick world, called to life from infested minds, they're taking over the space of our hearts, of our souls

can you hear my voice can you hear my words do you feel me now you can't feel the masks you're wearing everyday you can't smell the buried hearts the sand has fallen I don't know - was it your choice, was it your destiny this is the beginning of the end welcome to the war against yourself your heart's already dead

I can hear you speak to me but you're eyes are still empty you've already lost can you hear my voice, can you hear my words blind eyes are staring at me, knowing nothing, nothing but the lies hold my hand or go away staring at me - blind eyes

YES WE CAN!

save our lives,
but you're eyes are still empty
I can see the end
