

Fall

Breathe Atlantis

I've never fought the same war a thousand times
But now it's time for different lines, oh yeah
I will never let it go
Even if, even if

9 to 5, I could accept that I will never live my dreams
Well I couldn't know
Well I think so
It doesn't riddle
It's that I've hidden
Secret from me
A former lie
Give me some advice
Give me some advice
Give me some advice

I've never fought the same war a thousand times
But now I think it's time for different lines, oh yeah
I will never let it go
Even if I'm dying
Fall, fall
Fall, fall

Never thought that it would be so hard
To live my life, to recognize
What is important and what is right
Retrace, running, where am I?
Fly into emptiness
Love can ease with not being depressed
Can someone tell me how to rise, how to rise?
(Fall, fall)

I've never fought the same war a thousand times
But now I think it's time for different lines, oh yeah
I will never let it go
Even if I'm dying
Fall, fall
Fall, fall

All this space I could go
What's done is done, I'm careful
And we run
Run, run
It doesn't matter now
Things that I've hidden
Secret from me
A former lie

I've never fought the same war a thousand times
But now I think it's time for different lines, oh yeah
I will never let it go
Even if I'm dying
Fall, fall
Fall, fall
