I adore everything about you Especially the way you are moving it's just like as if you knew What I want you to do! I'm really into you, all I want is just you nothing new Hey girl, you make me so insane! I'm forgetting everything I do n't even recall your name I'm to blame cause it is such a shame
No, I'm no different to the guys who ignore Things like that

Baby I would catch a flame for you, my heart is stronger than a

So come to my side and let's take a ride in this world that kno ws every feeling except true love

Appearance is the most important thing Like there's a correlation between body and heart Was it like this just from the start? Isn't it time to change, to move forward?

Hey you, smart girl you have impressed me
All I wanna know are your feelings and your story
Let's do it smooth
Let's do it slow
I would wait a thousand years for a lady like you

You're my love

Baby I would catch a flame for you, my heart is stronger than a ny other
Won't give you away, your soul's a fire that takes me higher You're the goddess of my kingdom, you're a saviour that brings me some freedom
So come to my side and let's take a ride in this world that kno ws every feeling except true love

Baby I would catch a flame

Won't give you away
