

Lovable

Breathe Atlantis

With my heart right in my hand
Such a hedonistic circumstance - we, the young
That one night that is left to live
All those things left now to say
To unleash their colours
I've never dared to ask
I love the way she smiles
I've never asked to dance
And so did I
I offered everything
I love the way she smells
I'm crawling on my knees
And whisper: my mistress
I'd like to make a move
This is our time
This is our last night

We are reaching for the stars
Live the moment
Spread your hearts
Feel the spirit deep inside
Feel the beat being alive
Don't waste it away
We are certain: here to stay
We are here to stay

And we'll party and party and party and party and Pump this shit up to the max!

Just calm down for a sec and comprehend yourself
This one is lovable and something bigger than us
This is our fate and I participate
Just take my hand
We're in this together
Bounce like this
Grab a girl
French kiss
Worthwhile
Oh I am pleased to make you happy
Oh my dear
But I apologize for that
I didn't want you to be harmed
I've never had another dream
This is the life I love to lead

We are reaching for the stars
Live the moment
Spread your hearts
Feel the spirit deep inside
Don't waste it away
