

FANGS

Bren Joy

I'm caught in your fangs
I dance in your rain
Maybe it's the way
Your Uzi just sangs

It's the way that I might be faded
When my heart is inhaling you
And maybe I'm slightly jaded
When my eyes are fixated on you

Tummy flipping tricks like tony hawk
Nervous when you call
Texts feel like alarms
Room
Spiral when I'm in-between
The columns of your arms
I only want the best
And darling you a doll
It's all the alcohol
Automatically I fall
You spin me in a waltz
Then

I'm caught in your fangs
I dance in your rain
Maybe it's the way
Your Uzi just sangs

I'm caught in your fangs
I dance in your rain
Maybe it's the way
Your Uzi just sangs

All I need
All I need is you
All I need
All I need is you
All I need
All I need is you
All I need
All I need is you
All I need
All I need is you

And my simple obsession
Subtle flutters of passion
Only feel this way when I'm with you
You're my simple obsession
If I had the method or message
On God I'd send it to you
Swear that if you only knew

It be the feelings that's forming
Swarming on me
But just a glimpse of your sweet
Feels like honey to a bee
And I'll hold to your word like a scripture

My shepherd I swear I won't stray

And my simple obsession
Only feel this way when I'm with you
If I had the method or message
On God I'd send it to you
On God I'd send it to you
