HEADLINE

Bren Joy

Sunflowers on the kitchen sink
I think about you every time
Glasses of wine still stained with your lips from the other night, oh-oh
The scent of you is stuck on me
It lingers from our last goodbye
I'm counting every moment passing by 'til I get back inside, ooh-ooh, oh

Lemonade is sweeter when it's your kind (Kind)
Glitter always shimmers in the limelight (Light)
How the hell you end up on the sidelines?
You look so much better here on my side

When that hi-hat, hit the bass line
Yeah, I heard that through the grapevine
In that Goyard, sippin' Mai Tai
You just hit right in the right light
In the morning, running highlights
Every night with you, we in there making headlines
You're just so thick, need that fisheye
Want you to open up, so I can headline

Baby take all
Baby all
All

Do you feel that?
It's like lightning in the bottle when you push back
Run my fingers through your hair, and you say pull that I can never get enough, the way you throw that ass
Twenty-one, you wear them hoops like Mike
One of one, you lookin, ooh, just right
Praying you gon' let me off the leash, 'cause baby when you looked at me, oh

Lemonade is sweeter when it's your kind (Lemonade tastes so sweet)
Glitter always shimmers in the limelight (Baby, just talk to me)
How the hell you end up on the sidelines?
You look so much better here on my side

When that hi-hat, hit the bass line
Yeah, I heard that through the grapevine
In that Goyard, sippin' Mai Tai
You just hit right in the right light
In the morning, running highlights
Every night with you, we in there making headlines
You're just so thick, need that fisheye
Want you to open up, so I can headline

(Baby take all) Baby take all of me
So you can catch me when I fall out of the sky
Mmm, mmm, mmm-mmm, baby take all of me
So I can always be right there by your side

When that hi-hat, hit the bass line (Ooh, baby)
Yeah, I heard that through the grapevine
In that Goyard, sippin' Mai Tai
You just hit right in the right light
In the morning, running highlights

Every night with you, we in there making headlines
You're just so thick, need that fisheye
Want you to open up, so I can headline

(Baby take all) Lemonade tastes so sweet (So sweet)
Baby just talk to me (Talk to me)
Tell me how you get so sweet (Ah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
(Baby take all) Lemonade tastes so sweet (So sweet)
Baby just talk to me (To me)
Tell me how you get so sweet
