

You've Changed Me

Brenda Holloway

You've changed the way I dress
And the way I wear my hair
When I look in the mirror
There's a stranger standing there

You've changed me, oh, you've changed me
And made me someone new
Now I've got to find me somebody
'Cause the new person you've made me doesn't love you

Maybe you missed another girl
So you tried to make me her
But I can't be another girl
Even though you wish I were

You've changed me, oh, you've changed me
And made me someone new
Now I've got to find me somebody
'Cause the new person you've made me doesn't love you

I've tried and tried, oh, how I've tried

To be like you want me to
And as I changed, so did the love that was in my heart for you
For you, for you

I tried to make you happy
Doing things just the way you showed me
You've changed so much about me
'Til my friends, they don't even know me

You've changed me, oh, you've changed me
And made me someone new
Now I've got to find me somebody
The new person you've made me doesn't love you

Oh, you should have left me like I was when you met me
I could have loved you more when you should have let me
But you're gonna have to do without me
Because you've changed everything about me
