

Pretty Baby

Brendan Benson

I got a hole in my heart, pretty baby.
Got a hole in my heart, can't you see?
Should've known, pretty baby,
that you were gonna be the end of me.
I hear the sirens coming for you, baby.
Hear the sirens blaring in the street.
So why now, baby, tell me
Why would a lady bring the heat?

I hear the hounds in the woods, pretty baby.
Hear the hounds in the woods closing in.
So tell me now, baby,
tell me, pretty baby, where you've been.
I hear the shots ringing out, pretty baby.
I hear the gun shots ringing in the night.
What a sound, oh baby,
Hit the ground, pretty baby, out of sight.
Oooohh, pretty baby.

I got a hole in my head, pretty baby.
Got a hole in my head cuz of you.
Got a hole in my head and Blood is running red cuz of you.
