

Be Happy

Brendan James

You got the feeling in the elevator
The one that's beatin' your chest
You got the kindness, and the love appeal
A photograph of every meal

Hard days lead to hard nights and you cannot sleep it off
Dreams scattered by the way side and you think you're getting old
Oh, time's passing better start laughing 'cause the weight'll take you down
'Cause day's like this are the one's you'll miss
So be hap, be hap, be happy
Be hap, be hap, be happy
Be hap, be hap, be happy
Oh, oh

You got the body, and you got the soul
You could dance like you never had control
You got the mindset and the dollars spent
Look around and you may just find some friends
Hard days lead to hard nights and you cannot sleep it off
Dreams scattered by the way side and you think you're gettin' old
Time's passing better start laughing 'cause the weight will take you down
And cause days like this are the one's you'll miss
So be hap, be hap, be happy
Be hap, be hap, be happy
Be hap, be hap, be happy
Oh oh oh
Be hap, be hap, be happy
Just, be hap, be hap, be happy
Be hap, be hap, be happy

Hard days lead to hard nights and you cannot sleep it off
Dreams scattered by the way side and you think you're gettin' old
Time's passing better start laughing 'cause the weight'll take you down
'Cause day's like this are the one's you'll miss
Ha, ah, ah
Ha, ah, ah
Ha, ah, ah
