

Dreams Will Come

Brendan James

I can't believe this weather
I can feel it coming now the warmth of another sun, the start of another one
Don't bother me for tryin'
I can still be happy with the chance of a little rain
To me it's all the same
And the days will follow
And the dreams will come

The wind blows over me
I forget to see, how you did me wrong
Oh, the air I like to breathe is clearing up for me
You better get you some

I'm stepping out this fire
The light I need is shinin' from the moon on the riverside
That's where I like to hide
This world is something special
If my demons block my path I can walk around
I don't have to leave it down

Say, the wind blows over me
I forget to see, how you did me wrong
Oh, the air I like to breathe
Is clearing up for me
You better get you some

C'mon you can't see it
You got to believe it
It's like real love you can't fake it
Be careful don't break it
It's like c'mon you can't see it
You got to believe it
It's like real love you can't fake it
Ah, be careful don't break it
It's like c'mon you can't see it
You got to believe it
It's like real love you can't fake it
Be careful don't break it
C'mon you can't see it
You got to believe it
It's like real love you can't fake it
Be careful don't break it

Oh the air I like to breathe is clearing up for me
