

Broken

Brennan Heart

The answers to the questions
No they never seem to come in time to know
I'll leave it all behind

My heart's filled with confusion
Caught between winning and losing
It's all an illusion in my mind

Wasted time
I throw it all away
And find
And brand new state of mind
And now with open eyes
No I'm not broken [x2]
No longer broken
No I'm not broken [x3]

Lately I've been living trapped inside my head
Just thinking 'bout the way the stars always align
Well, maybe not today but I know with our way until tomorrow
I'm bound to see a sign

Space and time
Somehow I always survived
Through every endless sleepless night
I know I can arise
'Cause I'm not broken
No I'm not broken
No longer broken
No I'm not broken

Broken [x2]
