

Can't Kill Us

Brennan Heart

We're like roaches, we are everywhere
You try to step on us, but we don't care
You kill one of us, yet we multiply
Why can't you understand, that we can't die?
'Cause you poison us, to make us disappear
But still we come back, showing no fear
I've got the will to survive, that's why I'm still free
'Cause you can't kill us all, so you can't kill me!

We're like roaches, we are everywhere
You try to step on us, but we don't care
You kill one of us, yet we multiply
Why can't you understand, that we can't die?
