

I got one hand on the wheel and one on your thigh
You got a way that makes my heart feel like it's flying
The window's rolled down and I hear the wind whippin' by Country playlist so sad, by the end, the stereo should be cryin' g

Where do we come from, where do we go?
Answers to questions we may never know
All I know is we got right now
We're all chasing for something, a place in the sun
Like time and the tide, life don't wait on no one
All I know is we got right now

I got one foot on the gas and one near the clutch
If we get to rolling too fast, life will downshift on us
For worse or for better and all of the weather that comes
We've been together so long, we put patina on love

Where do we come from, where do we go?
Answers to questions we may never know
All I know is we got right now
We're all chasing for something, a place in the sun
Like time and the tide, life don't wait on no one
All I know is we got right now
Oh, we got right now

I got one hand on the wheel and one on your thigh
You got a way that makes my heart feel like it's flying