Forget who I am (Did I?)
And how this goes? (Did I?)
Did I forget who I am? (Did I?)
And how this goes?

Only heaven knows if you can truly win in the midst of a world
that's gon' end
How am I up right now?
I'm not. I'm still down
Only heaven knows if you can truly win in the midst of a world
that's gon' end
How am I up right now?
I'm not. I'm still down
Niggas dying everyday. But What can I say?
They just want me to sing
It's like everyone wants you to think how they think & do what they say & stay out the way
And if you don't wanna they got a problem with ya

Did I forget who I am?
And how this goes? (No way, now how)
Did I forget who I am?
Chasing gold?

Only heaven knows if you can truly win in the midst of a world
that's gon' end
How am I up right now?
I'm not. I'm still down
Niggas dying everyday. But What can I say?
They just want me to sing
It's like everyone wants you to think how they think & do what they say & stay out the way
And if you don't wanna they got a problem with ya

It's so hard to realize
Things I put you through
It's so hard to real life
Bring it back to blue
Wall of stars I'll turn to
