

GRAVITY

Brent Faiyaz

One-two, one-two

I'm on
But you want me home
I'd get you what you want
But you want me alone (Baby, I'm active)
You held me up when I was down & out
But I don't want you waiting 'round for me
I don't want you waiting too long
I don't want you waiting too long

She hold me down like gravity
We on front page of them blogs
Would you be mad at me if the whole world knew the shit we was on?
It would be tragedy
My niggas be globe-trotting like travel teams
You always in my travel dreams
Lace up 2, 3 stripes and I'm gone
But you just want me home
Shorty hit my jack like "What the fuck you doin?"
Bitch I'm all alone
You gon' press me now?
Is you gon' stress me out and cuss me out?
I had my fair share of women, feelings don't catch me now

I'm on (Don't act like I'm average)
But you want me home
I'd get you what you want (Superstar status)
But you want me alone (Baby, I'm active)
You held me up when I was down and out
But I don't want you waiting 'round for me
I don't want you waiting too long

It's not that I'm over you (Not over girl)
But I got things to do
It's too much to be your boyfriend (Too much)
And you ain't making this much easier
If I only knew this
When I used to be your best friend
You see me blowing up

I'm on (Don't act like I'm average)
But you want me home
I'd get you what you want (Superstar status)
But you want me alone (Baby, I'm active)
You held me up when I was down and out
But I don't want you waiting 'round for me
I don't want you waiting too long

Yeah, see I'm a star, look at me from afar
It's hard to be down to earth, when you nesting on Mars
You comment on how I move, too much space to assume
But I'm-a tell you the truth, shit, now
When I'm gone, and I roam 'round the globe, for three months
That's too long without something that's sweet, so I phone
Little treats, that's a snack, not a feast
They don't mean much to me, 'cause I know

That I have a bakery back at home
Am I wrong for (Fuck, come on)

I'm on (Don't act like I'm average)
But you want me home
I'd get you what you want (Superstar status)
But you want me alone (Baby, I'm active)
You held me up when I was down and out
But I don't want you waiting 'round for me
I don't want you waiting too long

I don't want you waiting too long
I don't want you waiting too long
You held me up when I was down and out
But I don't want you waiting 'round for me
I don't want you waiting too long
