

ROLLING STONE

Brent Faiyaz

I'm a rolling stone
I'm too wild for you to own
In a whip that's meant to speed
If I hurt you would you leave?
I learned the game from some heavyweights
Catching buses, making change from another play
I still got demons from my younger days
I wish I could shake 'em but they follow me
I wish I could take it easy but these fans watch
Ask my mama, I been hustlin' since the sand box
I'm a rolling stone

I'm sorry in advance if I let you down
I'm sorry in advance if I let you down

Bitch, you just spilled Louis 13 on my McQueens
Back the fuck up
I got all this pimp shit up in my genes
Blame that on my mother
I can't go nowhere that's less than me
Ask my lovers, I'm troubled
First I'm exciting then I'm gaslighting, make up your mind
I'm rich as fuck and I ain't nothing at the same time
People hate me and they love me at the same time
I guess I'm everything and nothing at the same time

I'm sorry in advance if I let you down
(I'm a rolling stone)
I'm sorry in advance if I let you down
