

A Beautiful Soul

Bret Michaels

Woke up this morning had these thoughts run through my head
Words I wished I told you things I wish I'd said, now
I hope it's not too late and if that door should close
I need you to know...
I'll miss your beautiful soul

It's the way you look, it's the way you breathe
It's the sexy things you whisper in my ear
When you lay your body down on me
I love your eyes and I love your face
You love me on my best days, forgave my worst mistakes
This could all be over in the blink of an eye
So now I'm asking you to give us one more try
To give us one more try, yeah

Shine on fallen angel
Shine on me
And find your way home
Find your way home
Shine on fallen angel
Shine on me
You'll always be my beautiful soul

So let's get down to the heart of the matter
Yeah We may be cracked but we ain't shattered
We are fixable, so don't let go
You see I could have said this and I should have said that
But the way I feel as a matter of fact, you're incredible
I was such a fool

If this is really over
Before it's said and done
I need you to know
You will always be the one
Always, always

Shine on fallen angel
Shine on me
And find your way home
Come find your way home
Shine on fallen angel
Shine on me
You'll always be my beautiful soul

It's so simple girl, why can't we see
I want you and you want me
Want me, want me too

Standing there in a crowded room
Our eyes speak but our lips don't move
You're looking at me, just looking at you
We walked outside in the pouring rain
Soaking wet, I still feel the same
You're beautiful and everything you do, (yeah)

Shine on fallen angel
Shine on me

And find your way home
Shine on me
You'll always be my beautiful soul

Shine on fallen angel
Shine on me
And find your way home (oh yeah yeah)

Shine on fallen angel
Shine on me

Woke up this morning had these thoughts run through my head
Words I wished I'd told you, things I wished I'd said
