There's a rose on the bed A letter that I wrote what you mean to me Words I wished I'd said, Were still in my head, now I pray you'd see I don't know how to tell you that I miss you, baby I struggle with the words sometimes But in my heart, I know you'll find Chorus: I know, you know Our souls will be together till the end of time $\ensuremath{\text{\textsc{o}}}$ You know, I know Your love is gonna meet me on the other side As sure as the angels come down and take my breath away I love you'd be the last thing I'd ever say I'd ever say.... You walked beside me, You stood by me and got me through my darkest times And now I close my eyes And visualize your face for the last time I didn't know how to tell you that I loved you baby I struggle with the words sometimes But in my heart, I know you'll find Chorus: I know, you know Our souls will be together till the end of time You know, I know Your love is gonna meet me on the other side As sure as the angels come down and take my breath away I love you'd be the last thing I'd ever say I never fell in love, No one ever touched me like this before You opened my eyes Made me realize something worth living for Solo (guitar and piano) What if fate took you from me Before I got to let you know You're the one thing in my life worth dying for If the world fell apart, I know in my heart I know would never change If the devil himself Tried to raise hell's bells I know it would be in vain If the heavens come down Let 'em fall to the ground Let 'em take my breath away I love you'd be the last thing I'd ever say Tištěno z písnicky-akordy.cz Sponzor: www.srovnavac.cz - vyberte si pojištění online!
