

Times Like These

Bret Michaels

Baby, will you be my girl
Kristi, will you be my girl
I'll take you to a better place, there's no pain and no disgrace in a perfect world

We'll drive that ragtop Cadillac
We'll drive that ragtop Cadillac
Straight across the Nevada line
Radio playin' hair flying
No turning back

Chorus
Hey babe, I live for times like these
Hey babe, I live for times like these
Baby, I live for times like these
Give me a reason to believe

For a moment times stands still
For a moment times stands still
I feel no shame, I feel no violence
For the moment and in the silence
I feel at peace.

Hey babe, I live for times like these
Hey babe, I live for times like these
Baby, I live for times like these
Give me a reason to believe

Solo

Sun rises in the east
Sun rises in the east
For a moment in your eyes,
I catch a glimpse of a different life
Smile at fate

Hey babe, I live for times like these
Hey babe, I live for times like these
Baby, I live for times like these
Give me a reason to believe

There's no famous final scene, no movie stars
No limousines, everything we'll leave behind
There's no waiting on the other side
Just you and me for a better place
I swear I live for times like these
You're all I need
That's all I need
You're all I need
