

Unstoppable

Brett Anderson

Like a falling piano
it silences ripples of arguments
Like an estuary flowing past islands
it happens without consent

It's unstoppable now
This impossible life
It's unstoppable

And it's out of control
and it breaks through the apathy of our pasts
Like a nation of millions tonight it's inevitable and charged

It's unstoppable now
This unbearable life
It's unstoppable now
As the wheels roll by
It's unstoppable now
This impossible life
It's unstoppable

It's unstoppable now
This unbearable light
It's unstoppable now
It could own the night
It's unstoppable now
This impossible life
It's unstoppable

You know we are unstoppable now
You know we are unstoppable now
You know we are unstoppable now
You know we are unstoppable
