

Couldn't Help Myself

Brett Dennen

Someone like you
Knows how to make
Me think the thoughts
That keep me awake
One if by land
Two if by sea
My love, you've invaded me

Now that I've been there
I wanna live there
With you
Now that I've been there
I wanna live with you

I was yours
Yesterday I was tied to you
Tied tight
I'm still yours
Never thought I would reach
For the morning light

But I couldn't help myself
I gave it away too soon
No I couldn't help myself
Surrender to you
Surrender too soon

First with the touch
Then just a taste
Then all the thoughts
That keep me awake
Kiss on the rib
Kiss on the neck
A rip on your pretty dress

Now that I've been there
I wanna live there
With you
Now that I've been there
I wanna live with you

I was yours
Yesterday I was tied to you
Tied tight
I'm still yours
Never thought I could reach
For the morning light

But I couldn't help myself
Gave it away too soon
No I couldn't help myself
Surrender to you
Surrender to you too soon
