

Don't Go Talking Yourself Out Of This One

Brett Dennen

There's an open door behind you and there's nothing behind that
It looks a lot like freedom from where I'm sitting, and as a matter fact
It's a fly away
It's a real cool way to take off
They get in here they come
Yeah they come by road they come by moat
They come by me tugging at your coat

Don't go
Don't talk
Don't go

Talking yourself out of this one
Don't go talking yourself out of it
Don't go talking yourself out of this one
Don't go talking yourself out of it

Don't pontificate, ruminate, suffocate
Don't look back, kiss that freedom for the kid
You skipped a beat, now you're on the street looking for a bridge
You don't want to make me tell you how to live
I don't want that either, gonna miss you so much but it's not about me
It's not giving up, it's giving back love
Don't work to make it work
It's not giving up, it's giving back love

Don't go
Don't talk
Don't go

Talking yourself out of this one
Don't go talking yourself out of it
Don't go talking yourself out of this one
Don't go talking yourself out of it
Don't go talking yourself out of this one
Don't go talking yourself out of it
Don't go talking yourself out of this one
Don't go talking yourself out of it

You can't simmer anymore
Nower than ever now
When the chance comes the iron's hot
Nower than ever now
You better strike it fast
Nower than ever now
Nower than ever now
Nower than ever now

Don't go talking yourself out of this one
Don't go talking yourself out of it
Don't go talking yourself out of this one
Don't go talking yourself out of it
Don't go talking yourself out of this one
Don't go talking yourself out of it
Don't go talking yourself out of this one
Don't go talking yourself out of it
