

Frozen in Slow Motion

Brett Dennen

Goodbye woman of my dreams
You were running for steam
I got swept in your slip stream
Like a vision, you came strong
Then you were gone, and you moved on

And all around me, inside moving, so fast
I'm still tender from the crash

Feels like I'm frozen in slow motion
You get further away
Feels like I'm frozen in slow motion
You get further away

Now the curtains closing
Are you a tragedy?
Are you a comedy?
I was romancing on the phone
Dancing with a stone
That I could not move alone

And all around me, inside moving, so fast
I'm still tender from the crash

Feels like I'm frozen in slow motion
You get further away
Feels like I'm frozen in slow motion
You get further away

Goodbye dreamer I have drawn
You belong among the love songs

Feels like I'm frozen in slow motion
You get further away
Feels like I'm frozen in slow motion
You get further away, further, further away
